

Lubavitch Yeshiva Ketana

Lubavitch Yeshiva Ketanah of London is looking for enthusiastic and capable teachers to join our dynamic and growing Secular Studies department. Centrally located in Golders Green, Lubavitch Yeshiva Ketanah of London is a growing secondary school with a strong spiritual ethos and warm family environment.

We are working to further develop the secular studies provision for our students and are looking for committed educators to assist in the process of realising our students' potential.

There are full and part time positions available to the right candidates. The full-time positions will involve assisting the headteacher in the running of the department through middle management roles in addition to classroom teaching; an ideal opportunity for an experienced teacher looking to develop their career beyond the classroom.

The part time roles would be focused on quality classroom teaching during the afternoon. The ideal candidate will have: QTS or good classroom teaching experience, Excellent classroom management skills, Consistent availability during term time (for the part time roles), Good subject knowledge in any of the following subject/s, in order of priority: English, History, ICT, Art & Design GCSE Teaching experience. A competitive remuneration package will be offered to the right candidates.

If you think that your skills and experience meets our needs, please be in touch by email: office@mechina.co.uk; FAO The Headteacher

We look forward to meeting you.

Lubavitch Yeshiva Ketanah of London is committed to Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Any successful candidate will be expected to submit to an Enhanced DBS Check.
